BIO CHECKLIST

Make sure your bio has these key points:

- A clear representation or description of who you are or what your service is.
- What you have done in the past five years, with a focus on the last year.
- Showcase your performance highlights/future aspirations if you are just starting out.
- Key information like your age, where you live (especially important on an audition bio), contact details (especially cell number & email) plus website or Facebook music page if you have one.
- Add something fun about yourself that gives a hint of who you are off stage.
- You can add any upcoming shows or projects you are working on
- This ideally will be one page in total including a picture but that can be a different file/ printed document as well.
- Tailor the bio to suit the job you are going for or for where it will be used, for example:

My quick title/tagline is:

Professional Singer / Vocal Coach & Performance Coach

This could be used if someone were to introduce me at a lecture or event.

My Social Media tagline is:

Professional Singer / Vocal Coach & Performance Coach / Berklee Online Student /
Planning & Productivity Addict

The full caboodle intro is the bio you see above!
